Conner Palace Theater, Playhouse Square

Set in Chicago, when Prohibition has everyone thirsty for a little excitement, SOME LIKE IT HOT is the glorious, big, high kicking story of two musicians forced to flee the "Windy City" after witnessing a mob hit.

With gangsters hot on their heels, they catch a cross-country train for the life-changing, life-changing trip of a lifetime. And what a trip it is! While on the run they find romance, misadventure, and, most significantly, their true selves .

Between the Depression and Prohibition, times were doubly tough in 1933. Bandleader Sweet Sue sets the scene lickety-split in the lively opening number in a Chicago speakeasy. In a winking lyric that easily speaks to any era, Sue belts, "At times like these, we could all certainly use a drink."

Based on the classic Billy Wilder big-screen comedy, the musical gets a fresh coat of paint plus a score that makes it all sing. SOME LIKE IT HOT is "A Super-Sized, All-Out Song-And-Dance Spectacular!" - The New York Times
